

ALBA GUERRERO

premieres 7 days

June 3, 2011. 8:00 pm

Flamenco Concert

Singer: Alba Guerrero

Guitar: Paco Garfia

Hospedería Fonseca Auditorium, Salamanca

Alba Guerrero premieres 7 days, a flamenco show drawing inspiration from the days of the week. The etymology of these names brings Astrology and Mythology into play. With this serving as its main theme, the show comes together with each day being associated to a singing style, cante and subgenre, palo.

Monday, the day of the moon corresponds to the song Corre caballito sung in abandolaos. Tuesday (Martes in Spanish, from Marte god of War) will feature Irak sung in soleá. Wednesday (Miércoles, Mercury or Hermes the messenger of the gods) features La pierecita in tangos. Thursday (Jueves, Jupiter or Zeus father of the gods) we shall devote to Fandangos de Huelva as it is the land of my forefathers. Friday (Viernes from Venus) I shall sing to love in milonga. Saturday, the day of Saturn or Chronos, god of time, we shall play in seguiriyas, probing into the relation between the twelve beats and five pulses which define this subgenre. Finally Sunday, the day of the Sun, we shall all sing in cantiñas and bulerías to celebrate.

Third International Congress on Tools for Teaching Logic

<http://logicae.usal.es/TICTTL/>